To whom it may concern

It is a pleasure to write this recommendation letter to Ms. Humaira Yasmeen D/O Muhammad Amir in order to recommend her for pursuing of her higher studies at your prestigious institute. She has successfully completed her M.Phil. in Psychology (session Spring 2021-2023) from the Institute of Southern Punjab, Multan, Pakistan. I would like to remark that her academic performance was admirable and inspiring. Humaira always showed her interest in continuing with research and an academic career. I praise her as a good and keen researcher.

I am glad that she wants to extend her studies and I am sure that she will be a valuable addition to your higher education program.

To whom it may concern

This dispatch is being written on the request of Ms. Humaira Yasmeen D/O Muhammad Amir to recommend her to scrutinize her higher studies. By way of my scholar Ms. Humaira Yasmeen is well-known to me for the previous 2 years throughout her MPhil Psychology. She has finalized her degree with 3.10 CGPA out of 4.00 CGPA. She was very worthy apprentice and scored exceedingly rank in her course. She was continuously a scholarly, nimble and proactive student among her associates. She is strong in essential psychology notions and has good command in research techniques. She has capability toward accomplishment of manifold tasks efficaciously within allocated time frame. She is straightforward, modest and enthusiastic person. She frequently intrinsically partook in many curricular and extracurricular activities. Her research reports at all times prepared in time. She astonishes me through understanding the fundamental ideas and outstanding clarity of thoughts. Her innate passion for excelling at any assignment attempted has brought about good standing in her group many semesters.

Based on my observations of her abilities, I strappingly believe that she has the potential to be an outstanding student at your university and I feel overwhelmed to recommend her for the higher studies of your well-regarded university.

Please don't hesitate to contact me for any further information in this regard
